

Theatre

PRESS RELEASE

Concordia's Department of Theatre is proud to present the production of A View from the Bridge, by Arthur Miller.

A View from the Bridge is a tragedy, which tells the story of a community leader who destroys himself and those around him in a clash between his blind passions and the conflicting wishes of his own people, about the right way to live.

Arthur Miller was born in New York in 1915. His major plays include All My Sons (1947), Death of a Salesman (1949) and The Crucible (1953). A View from the Bridge was originally produced in 1955 together with A Memory of Two Mondays.

STANISLAW BREJDYGANT TO DIRECT

Stanislaw Brejdygant is a Polish actor, writer and director who has worked extensively for theatre, opera, T.V. and film. His well-known productions are based on the novels of Dostoyevsky: The Eternal Husband, Crime and Punishment, and The Idiot. For the last five years, Brejdygant has taught acting, directing and playwrighting for a number of outstanding Theatre schools including Concordia University, Université de Montréal, St. Louis University, Cornell University and The National Theatre School of Canada.

PERFORMANCE DATES

APRIL 11, 12, 13, 14

At 8:00 p.m.

Chameleon Studio, Loyola Campus
7141 Sherbrooke Street West

No admission charge - Limited seating
Seats are on a first come, first served basis
Box office opens at 7:30 p.m.

For additional information call 848-4741

CONCORDIA
UNIVERSITY

Faculty of Fine Arts

